

The Formal Proposal For Business Owners and Partners

I. Introduction

In today's world of business and finance an increasing preference for opportunities in borrowing using credit leverage from the use of various instruments of banking and loan schemes with the involvement of banking experts, financiers and introducing brokers. Borrowed instruments become more urgent due to the ongoing liquidity crisis and business needs are increasing and require immediate decisions because the wording of money - time is the place to be and the business is in constant search of capital and as a consequence of its development and conservation in the case of accounts receivable business education as well require a solid cash injection for recovery. In this case, usually business people around the world have looked to experts in the field of debt and debt instruments.

Thus from the above we can conclude that the use of bank borrowing tools is an essential component for any kind of business as a measure enabling the business to development and as a stabilizing measure in business situations such as stagnation in case of situation of emergency and force – majeure.

II. Advantages

Due to various credit programs in business there are opportunities for growth and business development as well as for recovery of business in the event of a situation of extreme necessity to force - majeure.

In most cases we achieve compromise solutions between the borrower and moneylender, subject to the provision of documentation and availability of own funds as a prerequisite for payment for the lease of the banking instrument in the case of a positive decision.

Funding for projects, even in those cases, if your bank has refused you a loan as well as in the case when you do not have sufficient funds necessary to finance the project, subject to the issuance of bank credit is usually the bank can finance your project is part of the contract require payment of 30% -50 % on your side. In this case, cooperating with our company we are happy to inform you that due to our initial investment decisions on your part does not constitute more than 10% of the cost of leasing a bank with banking instrument rent will be charged as a normal bank loan and all a huge advantage in choosing our company as your introducing banking broker.

High yield is achieved by leverage the initial investment and limited to 10% payment for leasing bank instrument BG from face value. Thus the investor has an opportunity to increase the size of investment in x10 times the initial investment that represents a huge opportunity to get in excess of nominal investment of U.S. $ 1m to the investor the opportunity to invest up to U.S. $10m or more, depending on the conditions of the lender. Risk of loss limited to options contracts that is wine-tasting solution as in option trading risks predictable advance as opposed to trading on the spot market and the stock market where prices are forecast little predictable. The advantage of trading on options lies in the fact that the losses and profits are projected until the purchase contract to buy or sell and therefore thus limited the risk of loss at the start. And in the case of an investor with credit leverage also has the ability to earn x10 times more than without it. The only criterion for participation in this program is min. investment level of U.S. $ 1m investment program otherwise loses its appeal
